TB is curable

Early diagnosis and treatment is the key to stopping TB.

If you have these symptoms go and see your doctor.

To stop symptoms returning, follow the doctor’s advice and take all the medicine they give you.

NHS Direct on 0845 4647
www.tbalert.org
www.immunisation.nhs.uk
A cough that lasts for more than three weeks.

Feeling unusually tired or ill. Unexplained loss of weight.

Fever and heavy night sweats.

Not wanting to eat.